

I fully endorse the NJ Do Not Call Law in it's present form - I urge you to not amend its scope and provisions. Residential telephone subscribers need this law and it's provisions to protect their right to privacy and prevent intrusion from telemarketers. My household has experienced a dramatic decrease in what I call nuisance calls from telephone solicitors. This is model legislation that should be adopted nationwide.